Mrs. Brown's old grandfather lived with her and her husband. Every morning he went for a walk in the park and came back home at half past twelve for his lunch. But one day a police car stopped outside Mrs. Brown's house at twelve o'clock and two policemen helped Mr. Brown to get out. One of them said to Mrs. Brown, "The poor gentleman lost his way in the park and he telephoned us for help, so we sent a car to bring him home." Mrs. Brown was very surprised, but she thanked them and they left. Then she said, "Grandfather, you have walked to that park nearly every day for twenty years. How did you lose your way there?" The old man smiled, closed one eye and said, "I didn't quite lose my way. I just got tired and I didn't want to walk home."
