Nobody likes staying at home on a public holiday, especially if the weather is fine. Last August, we decided to spend the day in the country. The only problem was that thousands of other people had the same idea. We moved out of the city slowly behind a long line of cars, but at last we come to a quiet country road and, after some time stopped at a lonely farm. We had brought plenty of food with us, and we got it out of the car.

Now everything was ready, so we sat down near a way at the foot of a hill. It was very peaceful in the cool grass, until we heard bells ringing at the top of the hill. What we say made us pick up our things and run back to the car as quickly as possible . There were about two hundred sheep running toward us down the hill.
